Make Memories With Friends

We are totally convinced that the best way to travel for a trip like this is with a group of other dedicated disciples. You will make new friends, find safety in a larger group, and you don't have to plan anything. Pack your bags and show up, everything else is done for you. It is truly the best way to see the world God created!

Itinerary and more details enclosed

Whats Included In The Price?

All major costs for the trip are included in the $5,365. Airfare (flights to/from Israel out of DFW), tour bus, tour guide, breakfast, dinner, tips, entrance fees, Deluxe hotels, and more are included.

You are responsible for trip insurance (optional), transportation to/from DFW, lunch($20-$30) each day, and personal items like souvenirs.

Trip Starts And Ends In Dallas, Texas

Our trip will depart and return to Dallas Fort Worth International Airport. Any costs associated with getting to or from the airport are NOT included in the trip price. You can car pool with others or make your own personal arrangements to and from the airport.

Need A Roomate

Many people choose to travel with their spouse or a friend. However, we understand that sometimes people sign up alone. This is not a problem at all. We will do our best to pair you up with another individual of the same gender to be your roommate. You will be introduced to your roommate before the trip begins. A single room supplement is also available for those who want a room of their own throughout the trip.

Health Requirements

This tour requires that you be in modestly good physical shape. This tour requires a significant amount of walking each day. You need to be able to navigate under your own power, stairs, inclines, declines, and paths that are uneven and comprised of loose dirt or stone. Those needing a wheelchair or walker are NOT advised to attempt this tour.

All participants are encouraged to consult with their personal doctor if they have questions or concerns about their physical health or well being for this kind of tour.

Full Itinerary

Day 1 (November 2 2026): DEPARTURE. Depart from Dallas USA for Tel Aviv, Israel.

Day 2 (November 3): ARRIVE IN THE HOLY LAND. Dinner and overnight in Netanya.

Day 3 (November 4): CAESAREA/ MT CARMEL/ NAZEREATH

Drive north along the Mediterranean coast to gorgeous Caesarea Maritima. Visit the Roman theater as well as Herod the Great's seaside palace and its ruins. Continue to Mt. Carmel, where Elijah challenged the prophets of Baal. Journey through the Valley of Armageddon, a strategic valley connecting Egypt and Damascus and the site of many historic battles. We make a quick stop at the church of Annunciation and view the home that tradition says is the home of Mary, Joseph, and Jesus. Next we will stand atop Mt. Precipice, where you will have a panoramic view of Nazareth, Cana, and the Jezreel Valley. If time permits we will make a short stop in and members of our group will have an opportunity to renew their wedding vows in a brief ceremony inside the church in Cana. Dinner and overnight in Tiberias.

Day 4 (November 5): MAGDALA/ UPPER GALILEE

Begin the morning in Magdala, the birthplace of Mary Magdalene. We then make our way to the northern limits of Jesus' travel to Dan. Here we combine a nature walk beside the Upper Jordan with views of the ancient ruins, topped by the Israelite high place that supported a golden calf (1 Kings 12). On our way out we will stop and take pictures at the Abraham Gate, this was the city gate when Abraham chased Lot's abductors all the way to Dan (Gen. 14:14) Next we visit Caesarea Philippi here Peter made his great profession of faith, and recognition of Christ Jesus (Matthew 16). Driving along the foot of Mount Hermon, we ascend onto the Golan Plateau for a magnificent view of upper Israel. The day concludes at Yardenit, where you will have a chance to be baptized in the Jordan River. Dinner and overnight in Tiberias.

Day 5 (November 6): SEA OF GALILEE

The morning begins with a boat ride on the calm surface of the Sea of Galilee. Visit Capernaum, the town where Jesus started His ministry and performed several miracles. Among the ruins, see the house of Peter and the location of the synagogue where Jesus taught. Continue to Tabgha, the site of the Multiplication of Loaves and Fish and the Primacy of Peter, where Jesus appeared to his disciples after the resurrection. Next we will drive to the top of the Mount of Beatitudes overlooking the Sea of Galilee and the surrounding area. We will end the day with a time of prayer and reflection at Mount Arbel, the tallest peak around the Sea of Galilee and the place where Jesus issued the great commission to his Disciples. Next we make our way back down to our hotel to enjoy our last night in Galilee. Saint Peters fish lunch provided

Day 6 (November 7): BEIT SHEAN/ JERICHO

This morning we depart for Jerusalem. On the way we travel via the Crusader fortress of Belvoir along the Rift Valley to Beit She'an, where King Saul and his sons were pinned to the walls. It became the Decapolis Capital and was traveled by Jesus and known as Scythopolis. Here we will see the ancient theater, Circus Maximus, and Cardo Maximo, and walk on a Roman street and much more. From here we will head to see the famous walls of Jericho and ruins from one of the oldest cities in the world. After our time in Jericho we will make our way to Jerusalem to check into our hotel and enjoy our overnight stay.

Day 7 (November 8): MASADA/ DEAD SEA/ QUMRAN/ EN GEDI

See the caves of Qumran where the Dead Sea scrolls were discovered by a shepherd boy. Next we proceed to Masada, the desert fortress built by Herod the Great and used by Jewish zealots as a stronghold during the revolt. We will also visit En Gedi and have an opportunity to sit next to David's waterfall. Finally before heading to our hotel we will visit the Dead Sea. Here you are literally at the lowest point on earth. Experience this once in a lifetime opportunity to swim/float in the healing, mineral-rich waters. Return to Jerusalem for dinner and overnight.

Day 8 (November 9): BETHLEHEM/ JERUSALEM

This morning we will begin the day on the Mount of Olives. We will follow the Palm Sunday path stopping at the Church of All Nations and spend time in quiet reflection and prayer as we visit the Garden of Gethsemane. In Bethlehem we visit the Church of Nativity and the caves where Jerome translated the Bible into Latin. Visit the Shepherd's Fields with views of the Fields of Boaz and Ruth. Time permitting, journey to the Valley of Elah, where David defeated Goliath.

Day 9 (November 10): JERUSALEM

Today we make our way to the Temple Mount, where Solomon's Temple was built on Mount Moriah. From here we will marvel at the Dome of the Rock enclosing the Rock of Sacrifice. Next we will have an opportunity to stand and pray at the Western Wall where Jews have prayed to God for centuries. Our walk continues to the Southern Steps where we shall see remnants from the days of the Second Temple, which was destroyed by the Romans in 70 AD. In the afternoon, we visit the Church of Saint Anne, the Pool of Bethesda, Lithostrotos, Pilate's Judgment Hall, and Antonia Fortress. Follow the Via Dolorosa with its culmination at the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. Return to the hotel in Jerusalem for dinner and overnight.

Day 10 (November 11): MOUNT ZION/ GARDEN TOMB

This morning we start at Mount Zion with a visit to the Upper Room, the presumed Tomb of King David, and the House of Caiaphas, where Jesus spent his last night before his crucifixion. Here you will have a chance to descend into the prison cell where tradition says Jesus was kept the night He was arrested. Finish the day with a time to reflect on all we have experienced at the Garden Tomb, where a communion service will be held. From here we will head back to our hotel to enjoy our last meal with our driver and guide and pack our bags and prepare for the journey home. Overnight in Jerusalem.

Day 11 (November 12): TIME TO GO HOME

Today we transfer to the Tel Aviv Airport for our return flight home with luggage packed full of keepsakes and your heart full of memories and stories to share with your friends and family!
